Other relevant skills, talents, expertise and/or experience:	I run my own coaching and consulting practice and have several years of experience in senior leadership working with a diverse range of people and interests. My professional career has honed my skills in managing projects, working with tight deadlines and competing priorities, optimizing for service, cost and event experience. This last season I jumped into the role of DM for U13C with zero experience and while we had a few bumps along the way I contributed positively to the players and teams this season. I communicated effectively and kept the focus on the players and doing what I could to ease the coaches and team manager's roles as much as possible. I know that taking on a board role I will continue to positively contribute to getting things done and bring a fresh perspective.
