5. If you do not know your Hockey Canada Registration Number, log in to Spordle.com to find it in the member's section:

6. Tick the box at the bottom of each section to accept each of the waivers:

The screenshot shows the 'Documents & Waivers' section on Spordle.com. The page title is 'Documents & Waivers' with a sub-header 'Please review and acknowledge the documents and waivers below.' The user's name 'Caitlin Goodsell' is displayed. Below the name, there is a list of documents and waivers, each with a green checkmark and an 'edit' button:

- ✓ Hockey Canada - Optional Use of Personal Information
- ✓ Hockey Canada - Acknowledgement
- ✓ BC Hockey Code of Conduct
- BC Hockey Photo Waiver

The 'BC Hockey Photo Waiver' section contains a text box with the following text:

I acknowledge that the above participant may be captured on video or photographed by or on behalf of BC Hockey, Hockey Canada and/or its local hockey associations. I understand that such video(s) and photograph(s) may be used for purposes of creating editorial content, marketing campaigns, contests, promotional materials, video productions, television broadcasts, commercials, social media, and/or digital media. I hereby grant permission to each Permitted User to use any video or photograph of the participant taken during the program at their discretion, and I waive all personal rights, claims and objections arising from the use of such materials worldwide and in perpetuity by the Permitted Users.

Below the text box, there is a checkbox and the text: ☐ By checking this box I agree to the terms of the waiver. A red arrow points to this checkbox.
